

Can you find 2 different features of instructions? What are they?

Why do instructions have numbers?

Which part of the instructions shows you the things you will need?

Why do you think the title of the instruction is 'Superhero Cuffs Instructions'?

Why do you think instructions have pictures or diagrams?

Can you find 4 different features of instructions? What are they?

Which part of the instructions shows you the things you will need? Why does this section have pictures?

Why do you think instructions have a little introduction at the beginning?

Can you find 4 different bossy words (imperative verbs) used in the instructions?

Did you think the instructions were easy to follow? Why? What made them easy or hard?

How many different features of instructions can you find? What are they? What is the job of these features?

Why do instructions have numbers? Would the instructions still be easy to follow if there weren't numbers? Why?

Why do you think instructions have a little introduction at the beginning?

How many different bossy words (imperative verbs) can you find in the instructions?

Did you think the instructions were easy to follow? Why? What made them easy or hard?

If you had written the instructions what would you change? Why?